Sutivan town is known as "bike friendly" and offers several biking trails for discovering the islands beauties.

Zlatni Rat, famed beach in Bol on the southern side of the island, is the best known and the most beautiful beach in Croatia.

The island is also known for its culinary specialties such as the famous Brac lamb, which is served almost everywhere.

The word wine is written big on Brac. And since Plavac mali, Croatian indigenous sort, has been planted on Brac for centuries, today these grapes are replanted in bigger quantities, along with other sorts like Posip, Vugava, Chardonnay, and Merlot.

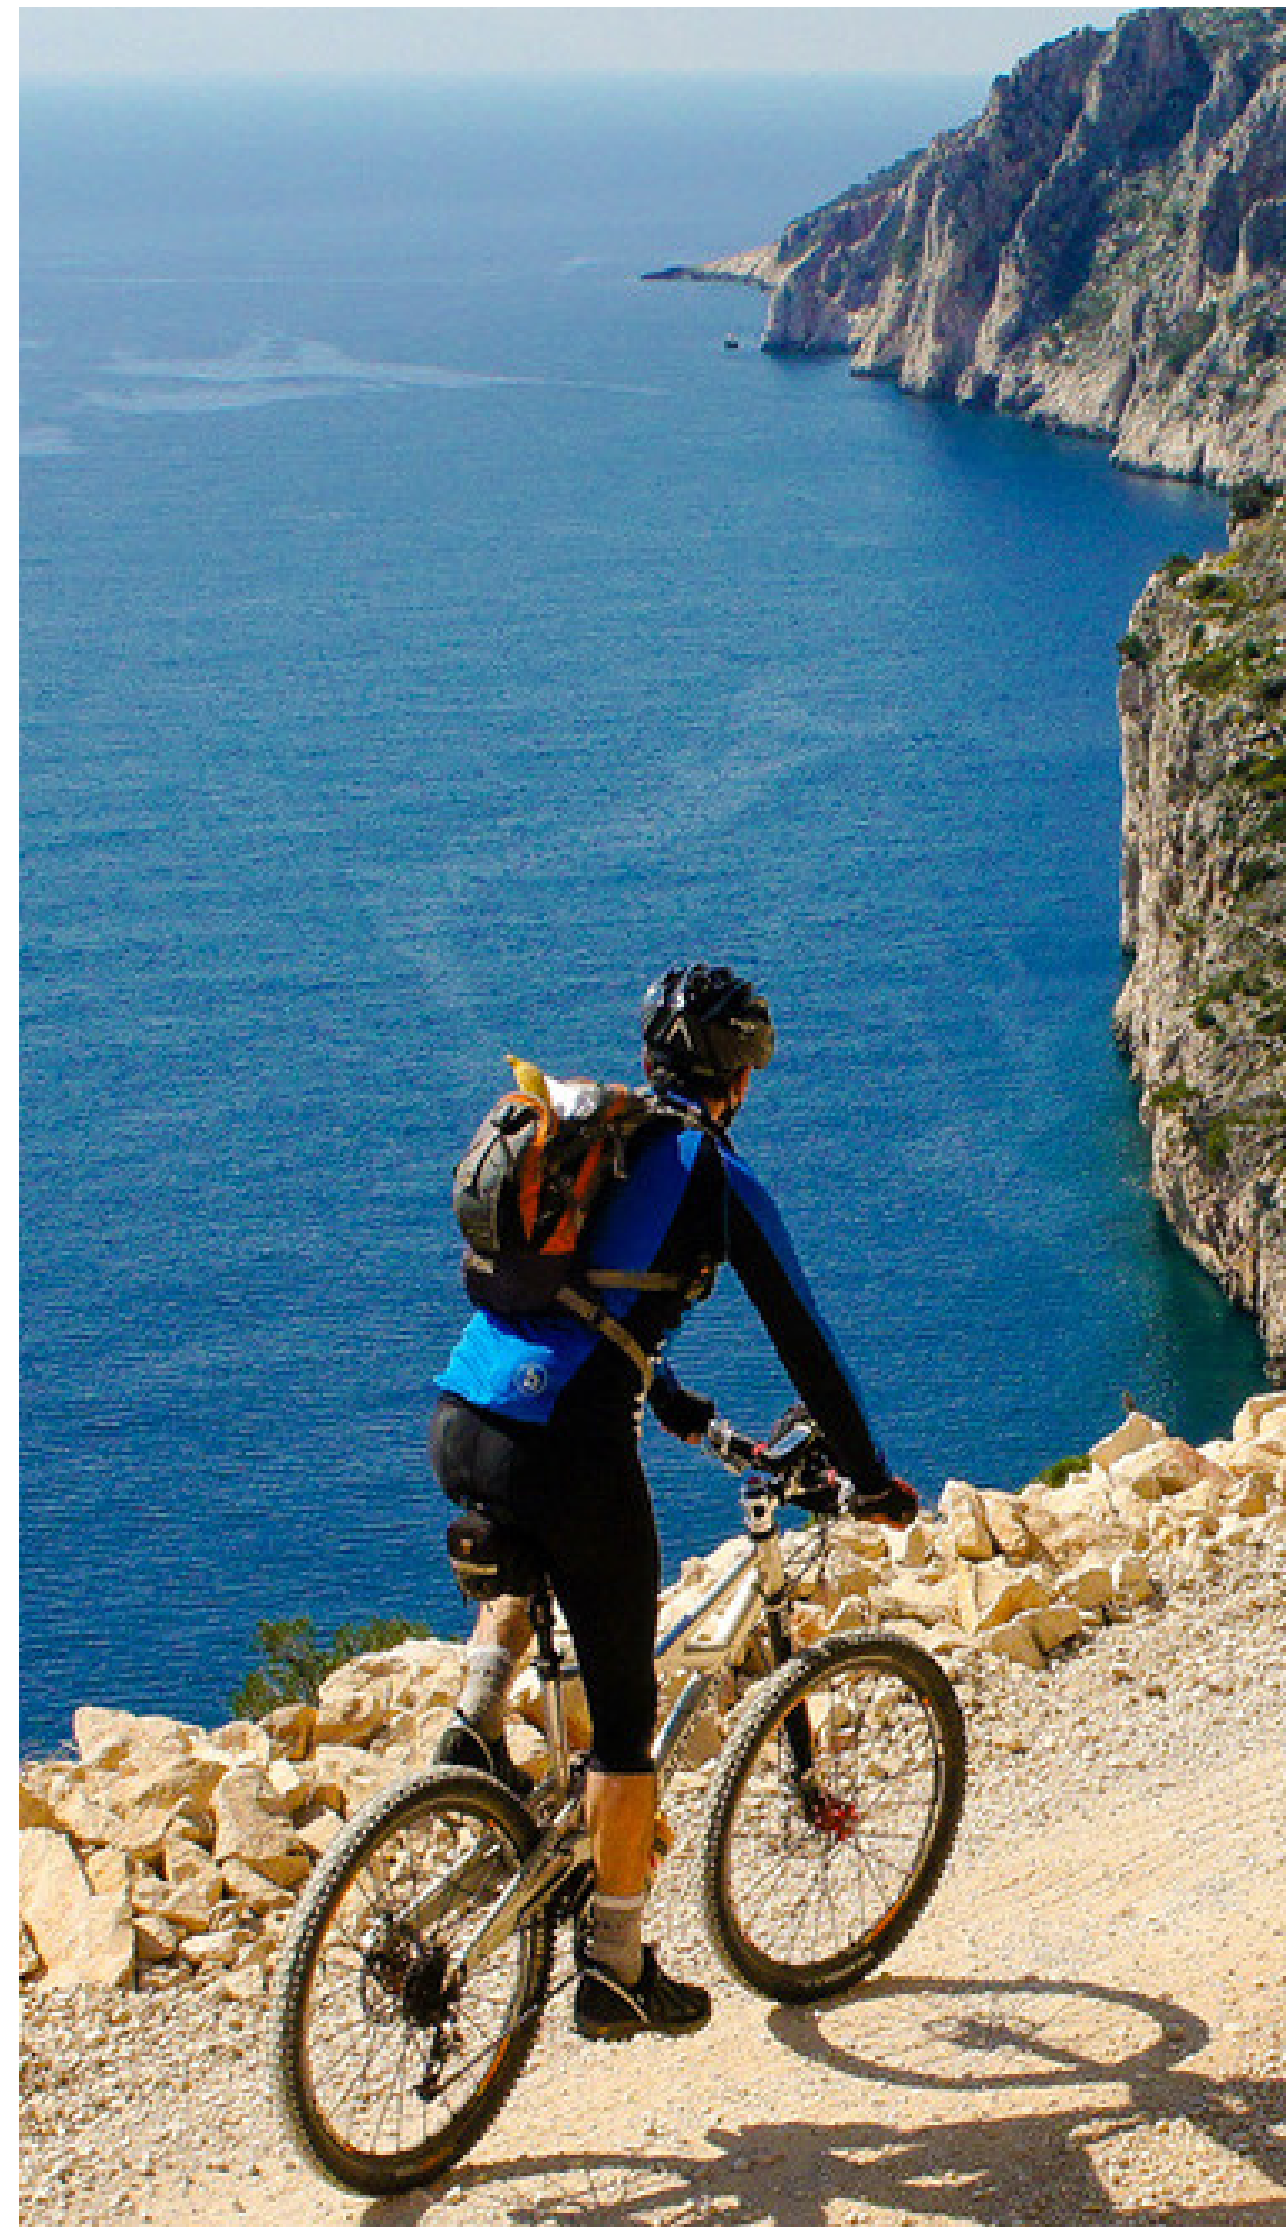

Bol town is the right address for kite boarders and windsurf enthusiasts!

The whole Brac Island has fabulous off-roads for bicycling with amazing views!
